ABOUT SPANISH LANGUAGE:

- Spanish is a language originally from the northern area of Spain. It is the official language of Spain, most Latin American countries and Equatorial Guinea. The Spanish name for Spain is Espanol.
- Mexico is the largest Spanish-speaking country with over 121 million people. The United States boasts the world's second-largest Spanish-speaking population with almost 53 million people, followed by Colombia, Spain, and Argentina.
- Spanish is one of the easiest languages to learn for native English speakers. According to the experts, it'll take you around 22-24 weeks to achieve what is called general professional proficiency in reading and speaking.
- Some countries use the term "Espanol" and others prefer "Castellano" to refer to Spanish. Both terms are used for Spanish because they are synonyms, but Espanol is less ambiguous; so it's preferable to use "Espanol" for "Spanish"
- Spanish is a phonetic language, which means that words are written as they are pronounced. Spanish pronunciation contains
